RE: Paul Raymond Emmons

Dear Paul:

In answer to your letter of May 27 on Paul Emmons, I have since had the following information brought to my attention: Mr. Emmons did receive a negotiated sentence. The felony charge of indecent liberties with a minor were dismissed and he pleaded guilty to a Class A misdemeanor of contributing to the sexual delinquency of a child on February 7th. On February 25th he was sentenced to two years probation on this charge.

Will this suffice?

Regards,

Donald E. Berg

Re: Paul Raymond Emmons

Dear Don:

Thank you for the confidential record sheet concerning the above Scouter. Since this is the only information you were able to provide in response to our letter of February 25, we feel this case is weak. We would, therefore, appreciate knowing what sentence he received before we review this case with our Lawyer.

Sincerely,

Paul I. Ernst, Director

Re: Paul Raymond Emmons

Dear Don:

In response to your letter of February 14, and the attached newspaper clipping we are enclosing a confidential record sheet.

In addition to this completed record sheet we will need a detailed letter concerning all the facts in this case. Also statements from individuals involved would be helpful. Copies of newspaper clippings or court records indicating the sentencing is also necessary. This material will help strengthen our position of placing this man on the file.

Sincerely,

Paul I. Ernst, Director

Gentlemen:

Sometime ago I sent you information concerning the attached in that he was charged. Now here is evidence that he has been found guilty. He recently was registered as Scoutmaster of Troop 6, Presbyterian Church, Decatur, Illinois. The carter expires on March 1st. He has been removed as Scoutmaster and we have no concern about his reregistering with that unit. We believe we can keep track of him in this community.

With the close proximity to the units expiration and the fact that he is being retired as Scoutmaster, should we engage in any other procedure to remove him at this time?

Sincerely,

*Donald E. Berg

Brief AIW Strike Settled

Members of Allied Industrial Workers Local 922 unanimously ratified a two-year contract Friday with Ornamental Metalworks Co.

The union members, who went on strike Wednesday, returned to work Monday.

Local 922 President Charles O. Huff said union and company representatives met Friday morning and reached a tentative agreement. The membership then ratified the contract which calls for wage increases of four per cent the first year and three per cent the second.

The contract also calls for an extra holiday, an improved pension plan and the company paying a larger share of dependent insurance, Huff said.

The union's contract covers 22 members but half are on layoff, he said.

The union's old contract with the company expired at midnight Tuesday.

28-YEAR-OLD PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE

Paul Raymond Emmons, 28, of 1405 W. Harrison St., has pleaded guilty in Macon County Circuit Court to a charge of contributing to the sexual delinquency of a minor, substituted for an original charge of taking indecent liberties with a minor. He will be sentenced by Judge Rodney A. Scott Feb. 2.

FLEMMING HEADS DRIVE FOR MARCH OF DIMES

Timothy C. Flemming has been appointed chairman of the 1977 March of Dimes, Mother March.

Flemming is marketing director for First National Bank of Decatur.

He has been active in such community projects as United Way, Cancer Crusade, Millikin University Fund Raising campaign and Junior Achievement.

Flemming, his wife, Kay, and two children live at 2554 Redlich Ct.

MEETING TUESDAY

The February meeting of the Decatur Sanitary District Board of Trustees will be Tuesday instead of Feb. 22. The trustees will meet at 1:30 p.m. in district offices at 501 Dipper Lane.

noon when gasoline spilled from a storage tank at his farm was ignited.

Ralph W. Newman, 66, whose farm is about three and a half miles south of Warrensburg, was brought first to Decatur Memorial Hospital after the accident, then transferred to the burn unit at Memorial Medical Center in Springfield.

He was reported in critical condition with extensive second and third degree burns.

Sheriff deputies said Mr.

supporting legs of the gas tank had buckled when they were struck by a car about a month ago, but that the tank had not collapsed because snow supported it.

During the recent thaw the support of the snow was removed and the tank overturned.

Shortly after 4 p.m. Friday Newman went to the tank to shut off a valve and, according to his wife, struck a match which ignited spilled gas.

United Way Chooses New Board Members

New board members were elected Friday night at the United Way of Decatur and Macon County awards recognition event and annual meeting.

The audience also was told that the United Way 1976-77 campaign pledge total to date is $1,133,332.65.

New board members are Gary K. Anderson, J. Parke Boyer, Michael I. Campbell, Thomas R. Dickes, Barrett H. Geoghegan, Mrs. Irene Loeb, Richard D. McGee, Thomas P. Walsh and V. Leon Wilson.

Re-elected to the board was Joe B. Livesay.

Retiring board members are James W. Alling, Sister Ann Bailey, Channing C. Bell, I. Paul Ellis, Jack L. Hunter,

Robert W. Kopetz, James O. McHood and Richard H. Ruedi.

Officers will be elected Feb. 25.

The United Way has budgeted $1,135,586 for expenditures of participating agencies and other purposes.

United Way Executive Director Norman E. Russell said Friday afternoon some of the money has been invested and the interest will allow the organization to meet its financial commitments.

Also Friday night, 456 firms and organizations were honored for their help in the recent United Way campaign.

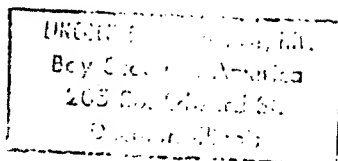

Norman Luboff and his Choir performed for participants in the event at Kirkland Fine Arts Center, Millikin University.

We will ADVISE when we have further
